The Honorable Leonard P. Stark
United States District Court for the District of Delaware
J. Caleb Boggs Federal Building
844 North King Street
Wilmington, DE 19801-3570

RE: Crystalllex International Corporation v. Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela (No. 17-mc-151-LPS)

Dear Judge Stark:

Rusoro Mining Ltd. (“Rusoro”) writes to inform the Court that, yesterday at 4:42pm, it received notice that Gold Reserve Ltd. (“Gold Reserve”) has filed suit against Rusoro in the Court of Chancery of Delaware. The case is docketed as case number 2025-1292-LWW. The complaint and substantive papers were filed under seal, and the parties have not yet met and conferred to discuss the appropriateness of sealing (Rusoro does not believe that sealing is appropriate). Accordingly, in an abundance of caution, Rusoro has not attached the sealed documents. We do, however, attach for the Court’s consideration Gold Reserve’s non-sealed Supplemental Information Sheet stating that Gold Reserve is seeking “[p]reliminary and permanent injunctive relief to prevent Rusoro Mining from taking steps to close on impending purchase of the shares of PDV Holding.”

Rusoro does not, by this letter, seek relief; we are in the process of reviewing the papers and reserve all rights with respect to the newly-filed action. Rusoro thought it appropriate, however, to inform the Court of the filing of this action, which we believe was intended to (and does threaten to) undermine this Court’s jurisdiction over the sale process.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ R. Craig Martin
